An Independent Organ for Canadians of Japanese Origin

VOL. 18—NO. 86 SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1955 TORONTO, ONT.

VANCOUVER SAW a sample of Japan's centuries-old Kabuki art this week at the annual Kiwanis Club Chrysanthemum Show. Arrangements to bring four entertainers for the occasion were made by the Club, and J. H. Crump, PRO of Canadian Pacific Airlines, went to Japan to round up the performers. Welcomed by Consul Jiro Inagawa (second from left) and Alec Forst (far right) of the Kiwanis Club at Vancouver Airport were Mrs. Kimiko Haraguchi, flower arrangement instructor; Tamako Terajima and Muneo Yamanaka, dancers; and Mrs. Kiyoe Terajima, wife of famous Kabuki artist Baiko Onouye. IN DECADE, MICROWAVES WILL LINK U.S. TV WITH EUROPE AND ASIA, SAYS N.B.C. HEAD

TOKYO. — American and Japanese television stations will be linked on a "regular basis" by microwave within 10 years, it was predicted by Sylvester L. (Pat) Weaver, Jr., president of the National Broadcasting Co.

Weaver, who is on a five-week round-the-world tour, also predicted a microwave link between Europe and the United States "within five years."

"This won't be on a 'stunt' basis," he said, "but as a regular service."

"Perhaps sooner than that," he added, "programs produced in the United States will be shown the same day in Europe and Asia via means of programs recorded on magnetized tape and flown across the oceans by jet airliners."

Weaver said NBC already has a commercial prototype of a color magnetic tape recorder and said "magnetic tape in color" will be on the commercial market in three years.

The NBC executive said "it would be possible now" to link Japan and the United States by microwave, either by placing planes in the air every 400 or 500 miles to relay the television signals or by setting up a number of microwave stations across the "northern island chain" between Japan and the American continent.

He predicted this would come in 10 years. He said there should be a microwave link between the United States and Europe within five years.

Weaver said one of the purposes of his round-the-world trip was to see the status of world television today and start thinking about the possibility of setting up international direct TV some day.

"That day will be sooner than I thought," he said. Commenting on the progress of television all the way from England to Japan, Weaver said, "Television is approaching the stage where a world-wide exchange of programs will be possible."

"I was surprised at how far Japanese TV has progressed," he said.

U.S. Refugee Relief Law Refutes Red Propaganda

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Acknowledging the assistance of the Japanese American Citizens League for its efforts on behalf of the U.S. Refugee Relief program, a recent article in the New York Times stated that Communism was dealt a body blow in Kyushu, one of Japan's poorest, typhoon-bent islands.

U.S. Consul James V. Martin Jr., vice consul Kermit S. Midthun, and other U.S. officials in charge of selecting the Japanese to emigrate to the United States said the program had been one of the most important single contributions to goodwill towards Americans in Japan.

At the insistent urging of JACL, a token U.S. immigration quota was allocated for Far East refugees when the Refugee Relief Act was passedd in 1953.

The Communists in Kyushu seized the program for its anti-American attack, believing that the Japanese would not qualify under the provisions of the act which was designed principally to benefit victims of totalitarian tyranny. The Reds propagandized that the "program's promise of hope for the ragged and hungry was a snare and actually a States bar to all Oriental immigration."

On the contrary, the act was interpreted liberally to include Nipponese driven from their homes and means of livelihood by natural disasters such as typhoons and displaced persons who were relocated to Japan from their established homes in China, Manchuria and Korea at the end of World War II.

Sponsors were obtained for these refugees; some were Nisei farmers eager to introduce the American way of life to more people from the land of their ancestors and other Caucasian Californians eager to employ the industrious, skilled Japanese.

JACL has maintained that the United States must keep striking at Nipponese Communist efforts to undermine Japan-America relations.

In addition to the refugees, further goodwill has been engendered by the 70 orphans adopted by American foster parents in the United States who have been granted visas and the more than 15,000 Japanese soldier brides who have gone to American homes.

Japan Children Think They're Misunderstood; Cite Home Discipline

TOKYO. — Maybe you've heard Japanese children are well behaved.

Anyway, a poll conducted by Tokyo primary teacher Takefumi Kotani among his students shows:

Forty-five per cent of the boys and 39 per cent of the girls said they got frequent spankings at home.

More girls than boys said it made them angry and some said they talked back.

Twenty-eight per cent said they felt lying couldn't be helped. Almost all said they thought they were misunderstood.

Business Should Enforce Policy to End Job Bias, U.S. Executives Feel

WASHINGTON, D.C. — A group of corporation leaders agrees the way to end racial and other discrimination in employment is for business to lay down a tough, uncompromising policy against it.

Vice President Richard Nixon reported that was the view expressed by 60 top executives at a government-sponsored meeting to discuss ways to end job bias. The meeting was called by President Eisenhower before he fell sick.

The vice president said the businessmen agreed that wherever they laid down an unswerving policy against discrimination, the opposition of some workers and local community leaders has been overcome.

"The fears many companies have had on putting non-discrimination policies in force, particularly in the South, have proved not to be justified," Nixon told newsmen after the closed door session.

Daiei Okays 'Teahouse' Role for Machiko

TOKYO. — Machiko Kyo, Japan's most widely known movie actress, will appear in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Teahouse of the August Moon" as the seductive geisha Lotus Blossom, her studio announced last week.

Hideo Matsuyama, an executive of the Daiei Studio, said that the board of directors had unanimously decided to allow Miss Kyo, famed as the star of "Rashomon" and "Gate of Hell" to accept the Hollywood offer.

It will be Miss Kyo's first foreign film and she will star with Marlon Brando in Hollywood's production of the stage hit by John Patrick.

Matsuyama said that tentative approval had been given MGM but that "details and concrete matters" concerning conditions for her appearance will be discussed at a later date.

He said that Miss Kyo, who has in the past usually acted in historical parts in which she has received world-wide acclaim, had left the decision on whether to accept the American offer up to her studio.

He pointed out that "House of Bamboo" which depicted American gangsterism in Japan had "led to misunderstanding" by the Japanese people.

The movie, which starred Japanese cinema actress Shirley Yamaguchi, touched off a storm of protest on charges of portraying Japanese in a poor light.

But the Daiei spokesman said that the script for "Tea house of the August Moon" had been studied carefully by Miss Kyo and studio executives.

"After reading the script," he said, "we found out that the picture will be based on the U.S. occupation policy and is likely to be a comedy instead of a serious drama."

He said, "we also got the impression that it will not hurt or insult the Japanese people."

Study of US Evacuation Selected Best Book In Govt. and Democracy

BOULDER, Colo. — A study of the historical origins, political characteristics, and legal consequences of the Japanese-American evacuation of World War II recently won a $1,000 prize from the Woodrow Wilson Foundation as the best book of 1954 in the field of government and democracy.

The announcement was made recently at the annual meeting of the American Political Science Association, which presents the award.

The volume, entitled "Prejudice, War and the Constitution," traces to their sources the agitation and decisions which led to the evacuation, and fixes responsibility for this tragic episode in American history. It shows the far-reaching effects of the wartime action on constitutional principles designed to protect all citizens, regardless of ancestry. The role of the courts in various stages of the situation receives special attention, particularly the degree to which the attitude of judges was influenced by their acceptance of the "Oriental stereotype".

"Prejudice, War, and the Constitution" is the final volume in a series dealing with the evacuation, published by the University of California Press. Two previous volumes, "The Spoilage" and "The Salvage," presented the shocking individual stories of Japanese Americans despoiled by the evacuation: those who were repatriated to Japan, those who relinquished their American citizenship in protest, those confined behind barbed wire, and those resettled in inland regions.

Authors of the new study are Jacobus ten Broek, Edward N. Barnhart, and Floyd W. Matson. All are members of the faculty of the University of California at Berkeley.

"The Mild and Gentle People of Prejudice . . ."

By JACK SCOTT
In The Vancouver Sun

("The mild and gentle people of prejudice"—that's the target of philosopher Harry Allen Overstreet in a recent Saturday Review article. The following excerpts, I think, will interest you.)

Professor Overstreet writes of the "ordinary, kindly people who happen to have a streak of the anti-Jew or anti-Negro or anti-Japanese feeling in them" and wonders if this prejudice is worth worrying about.

"It might seem to be harmless enough for a man to say: "Well, I don't like Jews, that's all, and I surely have the right to choose the people I want to associate wih, haven't I?"

"The answer to that, of course, is yes. The right to choose the people with whom we wish to associate is undeniable. But if we choose (and exclude) on a principle which, when magnified, makes not only for injustice but inevitable cruelty, then we are helping to create an evil and, as willing creators of an evil, we have evil in us.

"When I say that I have a right to choose the people I want to associate with, I make a true judgment if I imply that I make my choice in terms of the qualities of those I choose. But when I say that I don't want to associate with Jews, I actually imply something quite different. I imply that I don't even stop to consider them as individuals. I shut my eyes and say: "The whole bunch is not for me!"

* * *

"Magnify this," Professor Overstreet continues. "Let every individual say to himself: 'I choose my associates by first excluding a whole group of people whom I don't know and don't intend to know,' and a cultural pattern is created that is fraught with the profoundest evil.

"This is what ordinary, kindly people, with their seemingly harmless streak of racial prejudice, do: They permit the immoral principle of condemning people in the mass to take root in society.

"Once that principle takes root, other things inevitably follow. It becomes then a permitted thing to look down upon certain groups of people. When this permitted way of looking down becomes an established habit, the consequent habit follows: of regarding these despised people as permitted objects of insult and humiliation.

"Then the next thing follows: These people, because they are in effect rightless, provide an outlet for pent-up hostilities . . .

"He who permits evil commits evil. This is what makes for the haunting sense of guilt in our culture."

* * *

Professor Overstreet then examines what the psychiatrists call "neurotic inertia," the inability to resolve a conflict, and compares the mildly prejudiced person's "social inertia" to a sickness.

"Existent in multitudes of citizens, it pulls down the standard of their common behavior and makes for an increasing obtuseness toward moral values . . . Consciously or sub-consciously, the sense of responsibility is dimmed out in them. The power to feel is blurred. The issue is befogged by rationalization.

"Thus it is the mild and gentle people of prejudice, with their compulsive effortlessness, who must bear the burden of the moral guilt. They have given the green light, and the legion of low hostilities has b r o k e n through on the run.

"They are intellectually and morally sick people," Professor Overstreet concludes. "What is worse, they are sick people who try to make their own sickness the measure of their society's health."

Racial Stereotypes In Entertainment World

By LARRY TAJIRI in the Pacific Citizen

Bob Kinoshita, a sometime singer and nightclub m. c., got his biggest break on television last week. He appeared on Milton Berle's first TV show of the fall season, and bandied dialogue with Uncle Miltie in five comedy sequences.

Kinoshita, listed as "Bob Kino" in the cast credits, played the part of a Japanese spokesman for a group of foreign visitors who are touring the NBC studio. The Nisei performer read his lines deftly and earned his meed of laughter, although he was called on to project something of the usual portrayal of a Japanese. However, unlike the prewar stereotype inspired by Wallace Irwin's Japanese schoolboy, Hashimura Togo, Kinoshita's character was more literate and did not effect the former's hissing, bowing mannerisms. And he didn't say "So solly, please."

The Hashimura Togo prototype was created by Irwin, a San Franciscan newscomic articles for Collier's in 1906 and 1907 titled Letters of a Japanese Schoolboy. This was a period in which anti-Japanese sentiment raged in San Francisco. Political Boss Abe Reuf and Mayor Eugene Schmitz were facing indictment for corruption and, as a diversion, the San Francisco school board issued an order barring Japanese from white grammar schools. Irwin's mocking Japanese schoolboy stories played into the hand of the school segregationists. The misadventures of Hashimura later were published in two volumes and provided material for the Yellow Peril campaigns. Hashimura Togo became a stereotype which was accepted by a large segment of the public as representative of persons of Japanese ancestry.

American entertainment brims with racial stereotypes. They provide, of course, an easy method of identification. There is the type of canny Scot, the Irishman with his blarney, the romantic Frenchman, the voluble Italian, the British Colonel Blimp, the siesta-loving Mexican and the Stepin fetchit Negro. Most of these sterotypes are friendly—as Bob Kinoshita's portrayal—but others can be vicious, such as Hashimura Togo. The latter was a sort of white supremacist ridicule of a minority group. It laughed at, and not with, the Japanese schoolboy.

The Japanese stereotype, on the stage and movies, in magazines and in novels, changed with the times. In such books as Griffing Bancroft's The Interlopers, Peter B. Kyne's Pride of Palomar and Irwin's Seed of the Sun, the portrayal was that of people dedicated to treachery and villainy, and these novels, naturally enough, were used in the California-led campaign which resulted in the passage of the Japanese Exclusion Act of 1924.

After 1924, when the tide of anti-Japanese sentiment ebbed for a decade and more—until Japanese warlords started rattling their sabers in the Far East—the mediums of entertainment continued to project the Japanese stereotype. But the emphasis changed with the conditions. Humor replaced viciousness. A succession of Japanese butlers was written into stage plays of the period. Tetsu Komai, Miki Morita, Joe Hayakawa and the other Japanese film actors of the period played it for comedy.

Meanwhile, on radio, a six-foot tall dialect comedian named Eddie Holden created a personality named "Frank Watanabe" who was to become a fixture of west coast radio for half a decade. Holden started out on the old Blue Monday Jamboree program out of San Francisco on KFRC. His Wantanabe was a gentle soul whose main tribulations were with the English language. His "Ah, so . . .", played with the quick sucking-in breath, became his identification. He became so popular, at one time, that Frank Watanabe novelties were sold and a film studio mulled a series of short comedies.

Another projection of the Japanese stereotype, again in a sympathetic vein, was in the series of Mr. Moto films produced by 20th Century Fox. These pictures, inspired by J. P. Marquand's stories, featured Peter Lorre as a clever Japanese secret agent who usually wound up fighting fascists and other totalitarians. The changing tenor of events in the Far East caused the studio to drop the Moto films in 1938. With Japan moving closer to the Berlin-Rome axis the studio considered it no longer feasible to make pictures about a Japanese agent working for the democracies. From that time, on, the emphasis in Hollywood also changed and the stereotype became one of treachery, such as the Nisei traitor portrayed artfully by Sen Yung in John Huston's Across the Pacific in 1941, other subversives in such wartime films as Little Tokyo, U.S.A. and Betrayal from the East.

Now the pendulum has swung back and TV, the newest of entertainment mediums, presents Bob Kinoshita's pleasant, humorous Japanese to balance the portrayals of villainy which sometimes appear on television screens on the late, late shows when old movies dredged from Hollywood's wartime years are presented. Several films, which depict the Japanese treachery which never occurred, are still making the rounds of the TV stations.

Claim Japan Education Would Be Shortened By Simpler Alphabet

TOKYO. — A Japanese professor claimed last week he has invented a simplified Japanese alphabet which would shorten to six years the present nine years of education required by law in Japan.

Dr. Shinobu Ishihara, language professor emeritus at Tokyo University said his system employs 14 letters of the English alphabet; 36 from Latin, Greek, Russian and German, and a dozen phonetic symbols.

The new system would do away with 1850 basic Chinese characters and 90 Japanese kana symbols and make possible development of a usable Japanese typewriter (There are thousands more characters, and some scholars reportedly have a command of 10,000 different ideographs.)

青銅の基督 映畫問題化す

カトリック一部修正申入れ

【東京發】松竹・ユナイトの同社では城戸松竹社長の訪米を機に提携關係をふかめ松竹映畫の北米、中南米配給についても原則的に諒解が成立した。ユナイトの配給網を通じて公開する松竹映畫は時代劇三本、現代劇二本がともあれず豫定されている。時代劇は「修善寺物語」「鳴鳥先生」「青銅の基督」三本、現代劇は目下企畫中の作品で天然色作品「角帽二羽鳥」が候補にあげられている。

△「青銅の基督」は、長與善郎の代表作で、數少い基督敎をテーマとした文學のうちでも名作として知られているが、四年前に松竹が映畫化を計畫、三年間の準備期間と一億八千万圓の巨費をかけた野心作。ところが撮影開始の六月下旬頃、一部カトリック信者がこのシナリオを見て、カトリック信仰を傷つける危險があるとして、松竹にシナリオ改訂を申込んだ。その後、カトリック名古屋敎區映畫委員會でも正式にこれを問題化し、八月に京都撮影所に改訂を求めた。併し解決しないので、同委員會はカトリックの本部であるカトリック中央協議會が松竹本社に要請するよう求め、そこで京都撮影所でログンドルフ上智大敎授（協議會敎學部長）、古屋京都敎區司敎ら六氏と松竹の野口鶴吉取締役らとの話合いが行われ、[illegible]を偽つける意圖がないことを説明、出來上つたフィルムを上映して見せ、了解を求めたのである。

△松竹がカトリックの反對を氣にする理由は、日本の信者による反對運動が海外に波及、歐米のカトリックが「青銅の基督」をボイコットした場合、輸出しても興業收入に影響を與え、場合によつては歐米における輸入拒否という事態を巻き起す可能性があるからと見られている。

ト市からフォート・エリーまで

オンタリオ・ハイウェー省ではトロント市外からフォート・エリーまでの全長百マイルにおよぶクイーン・エリザベス・ハイウェーを莫大なる費用をかけて彈丸道路とするプランにとりかかることになつた。すなわちトロントからナイアガラを經てフォート・エリーまでの間は交通信號を一切とりのぞき、カナダ最安全の四レーン・ハイウェーとするものでありそのため現在點在している十三ヵ所の交通信號をとりのぞく工事が將來行われる。なお目下「交通安全週」が行われ、警官が總動員でハイウェーの交通違反を嚴重に取調べているからドライバーは十分規則を守ることが肝要である。

「總督にサン・ロラン」

世論では反對意見が強い

カナダ人によるカナダ總督を、ということに贊成六十二パーセントがあつたことを、カナダ世論調査はまに明らかにしたが、こんどの世論調査でもカナダ總督について回答を求めている。それはサン・ロラン首相がもし政界から引退した場合總督の役柄を與えるべきか否かという質問に對し、全國的には贊成三八パーセント、反對四二パーセント、意見なし二十パーセントという結果を出つ、反對の聲が少し強い。しかしケベック州内の世論は贊成五八パーセント、反對わずか十六パーセント、意見なし二十六パーセントで、斷然贊成者が多い。ところがオンタリオ州ではこれと反對で贊成三十二パーセント、反對五十パーセント、意見なし十八パーセントとなつており、とくにビーシー州の反對は五十六パーセントを示している。

雜錄

樂しい世界地理の本(下)
梅月生

このような作文を書くことは、日本國內では、一九二〇年代からおこった「生活綴方運動」という教育運動が發展するにつれて、だんだん盛んになり、子どもたちは、現實をまっすぐに見つめて、そこにおこったことがらを、かざり氣なく、まるで日記でも書いているように、ごく自然に書き表すように指導されています。そして、そういう子供たちと、多勢の小、中學校の先生方のご協力によって、さきにおげました「綴方風土記」(子どもたちの作文による、日本の國土と人々の事く)九巻は完結したのです。「世界の子ども」は、この「つづり方風土記」の世界版ということです。

ところが、外國にはこういった教育運動はなく、「作文を書いていただきたい」とおねがいすると、「愛する日本のお友達へ」という、書簡形式の紹介文であったり觀光案內的記事であり、「わが美しき祖國」「わが國の自動車工業について」などという、概括的な說明文か或いは「獨立記念日について」という、歷史の本の引うつしのような文章であったりすることが多いのです。私どものほしい作文の性格を理解していただくのは、中々大へんなことです。

これに、私どもは、ある國の表面にあらわれたことばかりでなく、內側の面を、ありのままに描きだしたいので、その國に住み、その國で生活している、人種、國籍をこえた、あらゆる人々の子どもに、作文を書いていただきたいのです。この作文に、編集部で、客觀的な解說をおりこんで、一巻にまとめる企劃です。むつかしい仕事ですが、そうすることによって、世界の國々のすがたを、斷片的にではあっても、具體的に、生き生きと、子どもたちにつたえることができれば、と思います。そうすることで、子どもたちは、國際間の友情と理解を深め、子どもたちの心は強く平和をねがうようになると思います。私どもの仕事の一つは、子どもたちに、平和を求める心をおこさせようとすることでもあります。

ながながと、「世界の子ども」についてご說明申し上げましたが、私どものこの仕事をご理解下さいまして、別記の各項につきましてお力ぞえをいただけますれば、誠に幸に存じます。お忙しい中を、おしつけがましいお願いで、恐縮でございますが、何とぞよろしくおねがい申し上げます。お返事心からお待ち申し上げます。

キャリブー夜話(二)
ワイ生

キャリブーでソーミルを始めた日系の元祖はテーラーレーキの永井万次郎氏で同氏一家は大戰中にパルプ伐りにテーラーレーキに來たのであるが、ピー・ジー・イー鐵道の枕木の不足を知り、立木は無限にあるのでタイミルを始めた。タイの不足に惱んでいた會社は大喜び、とんとん拍子に成功して今日も引續きやっている。次がテンタップ協同ミルで、勝野、小沢、村上、根來、砂田兄弟と筆者の七人の協同經營である。同時に小森五人兄弟、若林兄弟協同でロギン及びプレナーミルを經營し、別にソーミルも經營よろしきを得て成功の途上に在る。ホープで四、五十人使用してミルをやって居る上村氏も支部を出して居り、西口氏がタサントンにそしてアシクラフト近くには齋藤氏がロッジ山をやって居る。

當地から四十餘哩北、バッフロー・クリーキに港氏父子が資材、プレナ・ミル等兼新式のミシンを入れて着々將來への飛躍が約束されて居る。最近、安浦氏も永井氏の近くに小規模で始めた。又港氏の近くで倉橋氏等が數年前から有利に經營して居る。

何しろ不便な山の中であるから、日常娛樂の機會に乏しく、特に未婚男女の交遊の途も開けていないので日系二世の大部分は、キャリブー入りを嫌がるのであるが、この山中でも鹿やムースばかりを友として暮すので無く、自動車で何處迄でもダンスに行けるし、活動寫眞も近くのタウンに在る。ただ每晚出步く事が出來ないというだけである。

前記の小森兄弟、港父子のように一家協力して經營に當る者の爲には、將來無限に伸びられる新天地である。ただ勞働者補給が困難な一事、これはキャリブー一般經營者の大きな惱みでもある。何しろ勞働市場から遠く、不便である爲め、轉々移動する獨身勞働者は何か氣に喰わぬと、ヘルとか何とか言って出て行く。何十哩も探し廻りタウンのビヤ・パーラーなどから屋って來ても同じ事、中には言葉巧みに店から仕事着や食糧を買い、保證させて一日も働かずにズラカル自動車持ちもあるし、一週間位働きぶりを見せて二週間で前借りして逃げる惡どいのも居る。失業保險局などへ申込んで送られて來る者は殆んど全部と言える位い働らく意慾のない連中が多い勿論これ等は浮游勞働者一般の傾向を述べたに過ぎない。家族持ちには住家を建てゝやらねば近所に借家は無いのである。學校問題もからんで來る。

晚市便り
佐藤生

當地も雨季に入ったとでも申すのでしょうか、每日每日冷たい雨が降りつづいています。十日ほど前までは私の運動の兩側には美しい紅葉が見られ「秋の中を行く」などと、ひとり悅にいっていたものですが、このころでは枯葉落葉が雨に打たれみにくいまでになっています。もう秋もくれ、初冬です。

だれかの句に「今年は今年はとて暮れにけり」というのがありました。私なども夢を描いてその實現がなく小さいながら理想を抱いてしかも一步も前進できず徒らに「時」のみ追われてあくせくの間に暮れてしまいました。ただ學校の方は役員諸氏の熱心と母姉會役員の側面からの助力によって平和に圓滑に進んでいます

新黨結成大會は十五日と決定す

【東京時事通信】新黨準備會では今週グランド・ホテルで連合會議を開き、新黨結成に關する全般的な運營について協議した結果、新黨結成大會を十一月十五日に行うとの方針を決めた。なお黨首選出方法として次の二案を内定した。

△第一案　選擧權者は國會議員だけで、地方代議員には資格を與えず、候補者も自由に立候補し、自由選擧を行う。この結果上位二名をとってその決選投票を行う。

△第二案　衆院と參院が別個に選擧を行い、兩者の結論が異ることには衆院の結論を優先的に扱う。

【東京時事通信】民主黨[illegible]改進系を除く合同積極派議員八十四名は今週會合、「早急に合同を實現するための民意を正確に反映する形での公選によって總裁をきめるが、あくまで鳩山總裁の實現を期する」との申合せを行い、全員これに署名した。また自由黨の吉田派の林讓治、益谷秀次氏ら十三人は今週會合し、一、新黨總裁については既定方針通り緒方公選を推進する。一、總裁、首相の分離論は排擊するとの二點を申合せた。

無茶なパーキング令
ト市で問題ひき起す

△なんとクレージなバイローもあったものだ、とトロント市内の自動車所有者たちがカンカンになってフンガイしているケースが今週突發した。市内サウス・ドライヴに住むジョシ・オーグイス氏(四三)は自宅のドライヴ・ウェーに自動車をパークしているのが違法とあって罰金四十弗か禁錮十日間の判決をうけ「わが家の屋敷内にパークできぬとは理不盡も甚だしい。世の人々に警告するため敢て罰金を支拂わずジェール刑をうけてやる」と言い張り、十二月一日から十日間ジェールに入ることになった。

△ところでなぜそれがバイロー(市の規則)に違反するかというと、カーはすべて家のフロント・ルームの壁よりインサイドにパークすべきである。但しちょっとの場合はこの限りにあらずというアイヤイな規則があ[illegible]オーグイス氏に適用されたもの。この報道を知った市内の自動車持ちは連日連夜、オーグイス氏宅に電話をかけ「レッカりやれ、おれたちが後押しやる」と激勵するばかり。オンタリオ・モーター・リーグでも同氏を支持し「時代錯誤の規則を改正させる」と目下盛んに運動中である。

Sports Review

By EDDIE

BASEBALL IN JAPAN: Tokyo's Yomiuri Giants are the New York Yankees of Japan. Since introduction of pro baseball to Nippon in 1936, the Giants have copped 10 pennants, including this year's by a comfortable 10-game margin . . . Japan's version of the World Series, inaugurated in 1950 with the creation of two professional leagues, is also dominated by the Giants. Last week's 7-game series with Osaka Nankai Hawks (Nippon's Brooklyn Dodgers) gave the Central League Giants their fourth championship in four appearances, each victory at expense of the Pacific League Hawks . . .

Shoichi Kaneda, southpaw ace of the Central League, Tokyo Swallows, struck out his 350th batter of the season to surpass the world professional record of 348 set by Rapid Robert Feller of Cleveland Indians in 1946. Kaneda, who compiled a 29-20 record for the season, set his mark in the last game of the season, a 13-inning contest which he lost 3-1. Kaneda was the workhorse of the Swallow mound staff, hurling 400 innings in 48 games.

WEIGHT-LIFTING: Tommy Kono of Sacramento and Honolulu successfully defended his world light-heavyweight lifting crown in the recent 7-nation championship meet at Munich, and his "Mr. Universe" nomination gave the U.S. a 29-25 edge over Russia on the overall score of the meet. The Nisei first carved himself a niche in the strong men's field by winning the lightweight crown in the 1952 Olympics and adding the world middleweight crown the following year in Stockholm. In 1954 he defeated world light-heavyweight king Lamakin of the Soviet, and this year further distinguished himself by setting a world mark for light-heavies of 966 lbs. Kono also holds world records for the press, 316 lbs., and the clean and jerk, 380½ lbs.

On his most recent visit to Mack Miyashita's gym in Toronto, Doug Hepburn drew a chuckle from onlookers when he remarked that he felt a trifle weak and out of shape after hoisting a 400-lb weight over his head. World record for the press is 410 lbs., set this year by Paul Anderson of the U.S. Hepburn is believed to be the only human to lift 500 lbs. over his head. But the accomplishments of the "strongest" man in the world" are not officialy recognized as Hepburn picks up his weihhts off a rack and not from the floor, as stipulated by Olympic rules—this the result of an early polio affliction which has left a permanent mark on his legs . . .

ODDS AND ENDS: Seiji Onizuka was recently returned to the board of directors of the Boundary Curling Club of Midwal, near Greenwood, B.C. . . . East Toronto Ladies Softball league, of which the Nisei Toronto Cameras are member, will hold their annual general meeting Monday . . . Nisei Flyers will take part in the East York Arena Red Feather program Sunday, opposing Simoniz in the first game at 12:30 p.m. . . . Sunday nite, Flyers will hold their injured player benefit social at University Settlement house, 7 p.m., admission only a quarter . . . Nisei Sooners, who held the first-place Rams to a 10-all draw last week, will play the second game of their 2-game point series in the Ki-Y grid semi-finals from 1 p.m. today at High Park. A Sooner victory will extend the Nisei string as finalists since entering the league four years ago . . .

New Coach Roy Miyasaki Sees Lower Scores, Better Basketball for Nisei Five in Stronger Loop

A "double-post" attack will give St. Christopher Mustangs a new look on the basketball floor this season. Fledgling playing-coach Roy Miyasaki hopes to see better positional play and few shots wasted by his all-Nisei entry in the Bathurst-College Community league.

When the basics of this type of play are perfected by his cohorts, coach Roy expects to see fewer game scores ending in the 80s and 90s as was the case last year. The Nisei five will specialize on speed and smart play, and scores should be in the 50s, he says.

Herby Miyasaki and Paul Hirano will lead the Nisei scoring again, while 6'3" Ken Miyasaki has been coaxed out of retirement to cover the backboards again.

Most of the other teams will again feature players well over six feet off the ground. Tallest of Roy's boys will be brothers Ken and Herby (6'1"), Roy himself (6'1") Hamilton's Ike Murase (6') and Dick Tanaka (5'11") — pretty lofty for a Nisei team, but not much beside Doug Armstrong and Doug Trotter of the Andy's team, both of whom are 6'8".

Mustangs will rely on such set shot artists as Hirano, Yuki Kamooka, Sam Koyata of Alberta fame, coach Roy and Dickie Tanaka, who's a newcomer to the Sunday league. As the season progresses, much will be expected also of rookies Alan Fujiwara and Mike Kitagawa and hold-overs like big Roy Kurita and swifty George Shiozaki.

The league will go with six teams and should be stronger than last year's 7-team format. Last year the top three teams rated about senior B calibre, while the bottom three played like intermediate A teams. Where does that leave Mustangs? Well, last year the Nisei quintet were in the middle of the league, finishing fourth. Roy feels a similar standing in this year's strengthened league will be a considerable improvement for Mustangs, and that's his target for the year.

Trotters defeated Andy's for the loop championship last year, but Andy's went on to become Dominion senior B champions — which gives an indication of the strength in the upper echelons of the league.

The league will open its season on Sunday, Nov. 13, with Andy's and Mustangs clashing at 1:45 and Tridents vs. Trotters following. Doubleheaders will be played each Sunday, with two teams sitting out. Fan support for the Nisei five will do them a lot of good.

To give the players lots of action together, Mustangs have again entered the 8-team intermediate A section of the Toronto Church league, largest basketball organization in town. First game is next Monday, Nov. 7, 7:30 p.m. at the Humberside C.I. gym.

Miura Helps Interchurch Down Boulevard 18-14

In his first start for the Interchurch Bees in T&D badminton action, Tad Miura made his presence felt as he won three of four matches. Interchurch defeated Boulevard in a tight match 18-14 on Wednesday night. This was a notable win for Interchurch, as Boulevard showed their strength last week by tying the champion Strathgowan club.

Tad, and his unfamiliar partner Matt Matsui split the men's games with a couple of cagey veterans, Wallis and Dr. Tomlinson, who came back strongly to take the second set. In mixed doubles, Kay Ogaki and Tad took two games. Kay and Sue Iwasaki split their ladies' doubles and Sus and Matt split mixed doubles.

Next Wednesday's contest will be the most important one of the season for Interchurch, who'll meet the defending champ Strathgowan club at Strathgowan. Some indication of the final standings will be given by the results.

KEG NEWS ACROSS CANADA

Lethbridge Loop Larger, but Loses Girls to Curling

LETHBRIDGE. — After a rather slow start, the Lethbridge JC Bowling league is beginning to pick up interest. Oct. 27, 7th week of play, saw Mike Tello's Towne Hall Shop team holding on to the lead in the 12-team loop as second-place Lucky Strikes (Tad Kawasaki) reduced the margin to a single point.

Individually, last year's top bowlers have retained their form. Last week, Audrey Nonomura had a spectacular night, bowling 310, 202 and 742 triple, raising her average to 195, which tops Tomi Kamitomo's 189 and Sumi Medomura's 181. With only about 20 lines bowled at this stage, averages still fluctuate somewhat. But the consistency of the better bowlers shows, with last year's leaders Kyoto Shigehiro (212) and Wimp Nakamura (209) again leading the way.

Among new faces in the expanded league is Mike Toho, who "has come out of retirement" and is utilizing his (enormous) weight on the alleys! Nishnaks, manned by the Nishikawa and Nakamura boys and girls, who moved into town during the year, is one of the new entries. The other new team is captained by Yo Nishimura, a member of the Toronto baseball Westerns of some years back. On Yo's team is Tomi Niwatsukino, from the coast.

The movement, however, isn't all in one direction. With the start of curling in November, Nancy Takada has left us in favor of the refreshing environment of the ice rink. Another threatening to follow suit is Amy Tomita, who bowled last year with the City ladies champs. (We don't wish you well, girls.) The league still has a shortage of lady bowlers and reminds those interested in joining us as regular or spare bowlers that they're very welcome.

Some of the high scores last week: Shig Takeyasu 272, Jock Nakamura 252, Tomi Kamitomo 256, Nancy Takada 248, Kay Senda 235, Sadie Nishikawa 229 and Audrey Nonomura 310 (742). —SAB
